Dear Healogics, Inc.:

I am pleased to recognize the first week of June 2017 as "Wound Care Awareness Week" in the state of Montana.

An estimated 6.7 million people currently live with chronic wounds, and that number is expected to increase steadily over the next decade. This rise can be attributed to an aging population and growing rates of diabetes, obesity, and the late effects of radiation therapy. If left untreated, chronic wounds may lead to amputation and a reduced quality of life. To combat the negative effects of chronic wounds, it is essential to raise awareness about wound care and treatment options.

I commend the efforts of Healogics, Inc. to raise awareness on this issue and appreciate their dedication to advancing wound treatment and healing in Montana. Advanced wound care programs ensure patients, doctors, and the public are aware of the dangers of chronic wounds and informed about how to treat them. I encourage all Montanans to recognize the first week of June 2017 as "Wound Care Awareness Week."

Sincerely,
